	8.9.2005 Shri A.S. Geharwar, counsel for the petitioner. Shri Sunil Otwani, P.L. for the State. The main grievance raised by the petitioner in this petition is that the a show cause/demand notice under Section 17 of the Child Labour (Prohibition & Regulation) Act, 1986 has been issued on 15.5.1997 asking the petitioner-firm to deposit a sum of Rs.20,000/- as compensation for employing one child labour namely Kumari Kamleshwari. Thereafter, again similar notice was sent on 27.5.1997 to the petitioner firm, whereas, no child labour was engaged by the petitioner in the establishment and the same has been issued without hearing the petitioner. In the meantime, a challan has also been filed in the Court of learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Raipur. The petitioner filed reply to the showcause notices and stated that impugned show cause notices have been issued without affording any opportunity of personal hearing to the effected person and on this ground alone notices are liable to be quashed. In similar matters i.e. W.P. No.4809/97 and W.P. No.927/97 between Amolchand Jain Vs. State the High Court of Madhya Pradesh, Jabalpur held that 'demands raised without affording opportunity of hearing to the person affected is unsustainable in law and quashed the order.'
